Speaker Series | Rebecca Manning

Thursday, January 3
3:00 p.m. | Westport Room

We're pleased to welcome Rebecca Manning, collections manager at Mulvane Art Museum at Washburn University in Topeka and an art instructor at the university. Rebecca will present "Endangered Art in the Mulvane Art Museum's Permanent Collection: A Project for Conservation." Last spring, the museum exhibited, "Endangered Art," a collection of about 30 paintings by American artists that are in need of repair. Restoration and conservation of paintings, especially when major damage is a factor, is not a simple task. A great deal of thought is put into the details of each piece, all the way down to the frame. Rebecca was co-curator of the exhibition.

Jean Paul will speak at BSP about political campaigns and dark money. In an August 29, 2018, editorial for the Kansas City Star titled "Lift the Veil on Dark Money's Corrosive Effects," he wrote, "But many financial supporters of political campaigns for candidates and policy issues don't want to have their names shared... It is no wonder that so many citizens are cynical about the political process. As they become cynical, they are less likely to involve themselves in that process. And a less involved citizenry is not good for our nation's future."

A selection of more than 200 works, most of which have never before been exhibited in North America before this tour, reveal the power and splendor of the Imperial Household and its role in fashioning a monarchic identity for the new emperor, his family, and loyal entourage. The exhibition is organized and circulated by the Montreal Museum of Fine Arts (MMFA) with the participation of the Nelson-Atkins, the Musée national du château de Fontainebleau, and the Virginia Museum of Fine Arts.

The tour is limited to 10 people. Tickets are $18 each or free if you are a museum member. Please call Helen to reserve a spot and let her know if you are a member.

Chaplain's CORNER

Laughter is always a good way to begin a new year, so as we head into 2019 I would like to share with you something that a resident shared with me way back in 2018.

Dentist's hymn: Crown Him with Many Crowns

Weatherman's hymn: There Shall be Showers of Blessings

Contractor's hymn: The Church's One Foundation

Tailor's hymn: Holy, Holy, Holy

Golfer's hymn: There's a Green Hill Far Away

Optometrist's hymn: Open My Eyes That I May See

Electrician's hymn: Send the Light

Shopper's hymn: Sweet Bye and Bye

Realtor's hymn: I've Got a Mansion Just Over the Hilltop

And for those who speed on the highway:

55 mph: God Will Take Care of You

75 mph: Nearer My God to Thee

85 mph: This World is Not My Home

95 mph: Lord, I'm Coming Home

100 mph: Precious Memories

Time has moved us on from 2018 to 2019. As the new year unfolds, bear in mind that, just as there is a time for every season under heaven, there is a hymn for (almost) every occasion on earth—and One to whom we can always turn no matter what.

Where, oh where are Bishop Spencer Place residents' holiday flower bulbs? After you have enjoyed them, the Garden Committee will care for them and see that they are replanted this fall. Just call a committee member for free pick-up! They will continue to add even more beauty in our Memorial Garden which gained unusual approbation last year.

Garden Committee meetings will resume next month. Interested in attending? Just tell Midori, our chairperson.
